

YOUNG ACADEMICS COLLOQUIUM

Thursday, 23 May 2019 | University of Verona, Law Department

14:00 14:15 Greetings and introduction: Prof. Maria Caterina BARUFFI and Prof. Matteo ORTINO (University of Verona) | Aula Trabucchi
14:15 15:00 Keynote speech: Prof. Fausto POCAR | Aula Trabucchi

FIRST PARALLEL SESSION | PUBLIC INTERNATIONAL LAW Aula Trabucchi

15:00 16:15 Panel #1 Public international law & human rights
Chair: Prof. Marco GESTRI (University of Modena and Reggio Emilia)
Chiara GIULIANI (University of Rome La Sapienza)
The protection of collective interest in international law. Towards new trends or still at a stalemate?
Francesco CAZZINI (University of Milan)
Food trade in the WTO framework: the normative value of standards
Silvia FAVALLI (University of Pavia)
Disability, Social Media and Human Rights: 'What's the catch?'
Discussion

16:15 16:45 Coffee break

16:45 18:30 Panel #2 International criminal law
Chair: Prof. Fausto POCAR
Nedžad SMILAGIĆ (University of Poitiers)
Diversity of Internationalized Criminal Courts: Consolidation or Fragmentation of International Criminal Justice?
Ivan CAETANO (Eduardo Mondlane University)
Revisiting the Complementarity Principle: a need for a horizontal approach
Discussion and planned speeches
Giulia LANZA (University of Verona)
The International Criminal Court: 20 years passed, but Italy is still in default

Panel #3 Investment law

Chair: Prof. Giovanna ADINOLFI (University of Milan)
Dominik MOŠKVAN (University of Antwerp)
Domestic Courts v. Investment Arbitration: Reclaiming Outsourced Public Justice in the EU (Energy) Investment Disputes
Nicolò NISI (University of Turin) and Stefano SALUZZO (University of Piemonte orientale)
Reality and Illusions of Achmea: Ramifications In and Outside the EU for Ascertaining Jurisdiction and Enforcement of Arbitral Awards in Investment Arbitration
Aliz KÁPOSZNYÁK (Eötvös Loránd University)
Consequences of the irreconcilable conflict between intra-EU BITs and EU law – Recognition and enforcement of intra-EU arbitral awards in light of the Achmea decision and the Micula v Romania case
Discussion and planned speeches
Sandra FACCIO (University of Trento)
Investing in disputed territories. The Application of BITs in Crimea and other cases

18:30 Closing First Day of the Colloquium
20:30 Speakers Dinner

SECOND PARALLEL SESSION | PRIVATE INTERNATIONAL LAW Aula Tantini

Panel #1 Civil and commercial matters
Chair: Prof. Francesca RAGNO (University of Verona)
Cedric VANLEENHOVE (University of Ghent)
Now trending: #serviceofprocessviasocialmedia
Caro VAN DEN BROECK (Catholic University of Leuven)
The new EU approach to business failure and insolvency: chasing the American dream?
Felix M. WILKE (University of Bayreuth)
Counter-Claims in the Brussels Regime: The "Common Origin" between Entitlement to Justice and Equality of Arms?
Lenka VÁLKOVÁ (University of Milan)
Choice-of-Court Agreements in the EU and BREXIT: Hague Convention on Choice of Court Agreements as a Solution?
Discussion

Panel #2 Family matters
Chair: Prof. Agnieszka FRĄCKOWIAK-ADAMSKA (University of Wrocław)
Francesca MAOLI (University of Genoa)
Party autonomy in property relationships of international couples: fostering predictability?
Ziyana NAZEEMUDEEN (University of Aberdeen)
Is it a mere gap jumper? Challenges in upholding the best interests of the child in cross border surrogacy arrangements: A comparative case study
Vassiliki MARAZOPOULOU (University of Athens)
Recognition of adoptions within the EU at a crossroads between European law and national laws: A methodological test of numerous variables
Irene MARCHIORO (University of Bologna)
The free movement of same-sex registered partners in the light of the evolutive interpretation of the Directive 2004/38/EC
Discussion

