

LEARNING PEACE

LEARNING FROM
THE ISRAELI-PALESTINIAN CONFLICT: IDENTITY, DIALOGUE, AND SOCIAL CHANGE.

Tuesday, 4th November

IDENTITY AND CONFLICT

Wednesday, 5th November

POLITICAL IMAGINATION

Thursday, 6th November

LANGUAGE AND POWER

Friday, 7th November

LOCAL AND GLOBAL ISSUES

General information

OPEN TO : all students UNI VERONA
(up to 20 participants)

H. 9.30 / 12.30 - 14.30 / 17.30

Aula Labsum c/o Palazzo Zorzi, Lungadige Porta Vittoria 17 Verona

3 CREDITS AVAILABLE: attendance of the complete workshop is compulsory

FREE

ENROLLEMENT DEADLINE: 27th of October 2025

it@nswas.org - margherita.brondino@univr.it

About the program

This four-day workshop (3-6 November), facilitated by a Jewish and a Palestinian experts from the School for Peace of Neve Shalom Wahat al Salam, invites University of Verona's students to explore identity-based political conflicts through the lens of the Israeli-Palestinian experience. The program connects lessons from this conflict to social and political challenges in Italy, fostering dialogue, critical thinking, and political imagination.

Our facilitators

Facilitator at the School for Peace since 2003. She coordinates the Dialogue Courses Program in universities and colleges. She has a background in social justice work and human rights in the occupied territories.

MAYSOON BADDAWI

Uri is a registered Israeli Psychologist and a trained group facilitator with extensive experience conducting dialogue groups.. He was the co-leader of the parents committee of the WASNS school parents committee. .

URI GOPHER

REGISTRATION COMPULSORY
at this link.
All relevant information will be shared with the confirmed participants via email.

Associazione Italiana amici di Neve Shalom Wahat al Salam

UNIVERSITÀ
di VERONA

Dipartimento
di SCIENZE UMANE

The School for Peace in Wahat Al-Salam - Neve Shalom

