ONLINE MEETINGS (VIA ZOOM)

February 25, 2021 (11am-1pm) – Lecture, Dr. Dirk Brand

February 26, 2021 (11am-1pm) – Lecture, Dr. Dirk Brand

March 1, 2021 (11am-1pm) – Mentoring

March 2, 2021 (11am-1pm) – Mentoring

March 4, 2021 (9am-1pm) – Presentation & discussion

It is proposed that the following topics be addressed during this program:

- State of the world today – global risks perspective
- The 4th Industrial Revolution and its potential impact in society
- Good governance
- The importance of the Rule of Law in domestic and international geo-political context
- Law and international markets relationships

The students who attend this course will be divided into small groups who must work together in analysing a case study. Due to the Covid19 restrictions, it will be an online course.

With the help of academic figures, they must prepare a presentation which will be discussed on the last day of the course: the aim of the case study is to confront the students with a complex but realistic scenario that could happen today, and they will be asked to use all their experience, knowledge and resources to develop a comprehensive solution to the problems.
